INSPIRATION

Doge Rescue was founded by a team of dog owners who love seeing dogs get rescued. Adopting and rescuing a dog is a true act of love that brings joy to the dog and to the new owner. The original Doge meme is awesome and since this project will hopefully be going to the moon, we have dogs wearing astronaut suits flying to their new home on the moon. Shiba is the lead dog that is in charge of rescuing dogs and launching them to their new homes.
